

Idioms	Meaning
□□□□[g ǒu jí tiào qiáng]	Desperation drives a dog to jump over a wall. Despair gives courage to a coward.
□□□□[t ù sǐ gǒu pēng]	The hounds are killed for food once all the hares are bagged -- trusted aides are eliminated when they have outlived their usefulness.
□□□□[zh ū péng gǒu yǒu]
□□□□
□□□□□□□□

Idioms about Dog

Idioms	Meaning
 [gǒu jí tiào qiáng]	Desperation drives a dog to jump over a wall. Despair gives courage to a coward.
 [zhū péng gǒu yǒu]	Fair-weather friend.
 [huà hǔ chéng gǒu]	Try to draw a tiger but end up with the likeness of a dog; fail to obtain the desired results.
 [guà yáng tóu,mài gǒu ròu]	Cry up wine and sell vinegar.
 [gǒu zuǐ li tǔ bù chū xiàng yá]	No ivory will come of a dog's mouth. A filthy mouth cannot utter decent language.

