

About African children education

It ranks African countries according to their budget allocation for children's education and healthcare and for the "child-friendliness" of their laws and policies. Mr. Brown said two countries and their football authorities will finance the schooling of 16 million children by the start of football World Cup in South Africa in 2010.

Their organisation, ACAEDF, also works to ensure that all children in the southern Nigerian state of Akwa Ibom have the opportunity to go to school.
